LEGAL DISCLAIMER

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY:

This document is an educational resource designed to help parents advocate for their children. I am an AI Prompt Engineer, not an Attorney.

The scripts and frameworks provided here are for negotiation and communication purposes only and do not constitute legal advice.

Special Education laws (IDEA) are Federal, but implementation varies by State. Always check your specific State regulations or consult with a qualified Special Education Attorney or Advocate before taking legal action.

How to Use This System

This is not a book. It is a Pocket Lawyer.

1. Identify the Block: Use the menu on the next page to find your specific problem.
2. Select the Tool: Go to the specific script.
3. Copy the Prompt: Enter the text from the Grey Box into ChatGPT.
4. Customize: Fill in the bracketed details [Child's Name/Diagnosis].
5. Execute: Send the email or speak the script.

Section 1: Eligibility & Evaluations

Tool 01: The 'Prior Written Notice' (PWN) Demand

Best Used When: The school verbally denies a request but won't put it in writing.

COPY/PASTE INTO CHATGPT:

The school verbally denied my request for [Service/Evaluation]. Act as a Special Education Advocate. Write an email formally requesting 'Prior Written Notice' (PWN) under IDEA. Politely demand they explain in writing why they are refusing, what data they used, and what other options were considered.

Parent Note: If it's not in writing, it didn't happen. Make them write the 'No'.

Tool 02: The 'RTI Purgatory' Breaker

Best Used When: They say 'We can't test yet, we are doing RTI'.

COPY/PASTE INTO CHATGPT:

The school is delaying evaluation because of 'RTI' (Response to Intervention). Write a formal letter citing OSEP guidance that states 'RTI cannot be used to delay or deny a special education evaluation.' Request that the evaluation proceed concurrently with RTI.

Parent Note: Intervention is good. Using intervention as a waiting room is illegal.

Tool 05: The 'Data or Denial' Trap

Best Used When: They say 'He is doing fine' based on anecdotes.

COPY/PASTE INTO CHATGPT:

The team says my child is 'doing fine.' Give me a script to ask for specific data: 'Please show me the raw data sheets, baseline measurements, and progress monitoring graphs. I need to see the numbers, not just hear the observation.'

Parent Note: 'He's a joy to have in class' is not data.

Section 2: SMART Goals

Tool 09: The SMART Goal Auditor

Best Used When: The goal is vague (e.g., 'Will improve reading').

COPY/PASTE INTO CHATGPT:

Here is a draft goal: '[Insert Goal]'. Audit this against the SMART framework. Rewrite it to be legally defensible, including the specific skill, condition, criteria for mastery, and measurement tool.

Parent Note: A vague goal is a goal that will never be met.

Tool 14: The 'Stranger Test' Framework

Best Used When: The goal is full of jargon.

COPY/PASTE INTO CHATGPT:

Check this goal for the 'Stranger Test.' If a new teacher who never met my child read this, would they know exactly what to teach? If not, rewrite it to be crystal clear.

Parent Note: The IEP is the instruction manual for your child.

Tool 12: The Executive Function Goal Builder

Best Used When: Your child loses papers and can't plan.

COPY/PASTE INTO CHATGPT:

My child struggles with Executive Function (specifically [Task initiation/Organization]). Write 3 SMART goals for this.
Example: 'By [Date], given a long-term assignment, Student will break the task into daily steps.'

Parent Note: Executive function is the conductor of the orchestra.

Section 3: Accommodations

Tool 18: The 'Aide Support' Definition

Best Used When: The IEP says 'Access to an aide' but they are never there.

COPY/PASTE INTO CHATGPT:

The term 'Access to an aide' is too vague. Help me define the accommodation. I want to specify: '1:1 aide support during [Specific Times] for the purpose of [Specific Task].'

Parent Note: 'Access to' is a loophole. 'Dedicated support' is a guarantee.

Tool 23: The 'Visual Schedule' Mandate

Best Used When: Your child asks 'What's next?' constantly.

COPY/PASTE INTO CHATGPT:

Request a 'Individualized Visual Schedule.' Specify that it must be on the student's desk (not just on the wall) and that the student must be prompted to check it before every transition.

Parent Note: Visuals are permanent; words are temporary.

Section 4: Dispute Resolution

Tool 28: The 'Stay Put' (Pendent Placement) Assertion

Best Used When: The school tries to change placement without agreement.

COPY/PASTE INTO CHATGPT:

The school proposed a change to placement that I disagree with. Write a letter invoking my 'Stay Put' rights (Pendent Placement). State that during the dispute, my child must remain in their current placement with all services.

Parent Note: They can't move the goalposts while you are arguing the play.

Tool 30: The 'Good Faith' Warning Shot

Best Used When: The school is ignoring the IEP.

COPY/PASTE INTO CHATGPT:

The school is repeatedly out of compliance. Write a firm letter to the Director. State: 'I want to resolve this collaboratively, but I am prepared to exercise my procedural safeguards if these services are not in place by [Date].'

Parent Note: Sometimes you have to show the sword to keep the peace.

Section 5: Meeting Prep & Communication

Tool 32B: The 'Olive Branch' Opener

Best Used When: You want to start the meeting with honey, not vinegar.

COPY/PASTE INTO CHATGPT:

Write a 'Parent Vision Statement' opening for an IEP meeting. It should thank the team for their hard work on [Specific Success] before pivoting to my serious concerns about [Failure]. Tone: Collaborative but serious.

Parent Note: People work harder for people they like.

Tool 36: The 'Recording the Meeting' Protocol

Best Used When: You don't trust the school's notes.

WARNING: Check your state's 'One Party Consent' laws. In some states, you must announce you are recording.

COPY/PASTE INTO CHATGPT:

I want to record the IEP meeting. Write a notification email informing the Case Manager: 'I will be audio recording our upcoming meeting to ensure I can participate fully and have an accurate record.'

Parent Note: People behave better when the microphone is on.

Tool 40: The 'Dissenting Opinion' Attachment

Best Used When: You lost the vote but need to preserve your rights.

COPY/PASTE INTO CHATGPT:

The team overruled me. Help me write a 'Parent Dissenting Opinion' letter to attach to the IEP. Clearly state why I believe the offer does not provide FAPE.

Parent Note: Never leave without signing for 'Attendance Only' if you disagree. Refusing to sign attendance looks like you weren't there.

Tool 32C: The 'Paper Trail' After-Action Report

Best Used When: The meeting is over and you need to lock in promises.

COPY/PASTE INTO CHATGPT:

I just finished an IEP meeting. Here are my raw notes of what was promised: [Insert Notes]. Rewrite this into a formal 'Letter of Understanding' to the Principal, starting with 'To ensure our recollections align...'.

Parent Note: If it's not written down, it didn't happen.
